

Seminar on social entrepreneurship

The role of social entrepreneurs in international development

9th December 2019 (Mon)
14:45~15:45

Auditorium, 8th Floor, Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University

Eligibility: University students, Graduate students and Faculty staff
Language: English Fee : Free

During this seminar, Ms. Tri Mumpuni will share past activities and how she worked with different stakeholders like government, local government, private companies as well as citizen. In addition, we would like to discuss the role of social entrepreneurs in international development.

Speaker

Ms. Tri Mumpunii

Ms. Tri Mumpuni founded IBEKA in 1992. She has been involving rural development mainly introducing community-based power generating electricity to Indonesian villages to improve people's lives. In 2011, she received the Magsaysay Award, known as the Asian Nobel Prize.

【Registration】

Please register from following website
by 6th December (Fri) 17:00.

[https://tongali.net/events/
social-entrepreneur-seminar2019/](https://tongali.net/events/social-entrepreneur-seminar2019/)

Organizer: Tongali Project (Consortium of University-Industry Collaboration University, Tokai District)
Co-Organizer: Graduate School of International development, Nagoya
University (GSID)
Contact: Tongali Project Secretariat
TEL: 052-747-6490 Mail: tongali@aip.nagoya-u.ac.jp
URL: <https://tongali.net/>