

Social Impact Workshop

This workshop aims to learn theory and practice of social impacts and idea creation methods through focusing on to solve social issues in Africa. There will be both face to face (at Nagoya University) and online workshops, we will conduct online interviews with communities in Kenya, Africa to explore ways to solve local problems. On the final day, you will have a opportunity to present your idea to local people in Africa. We are waiting for your applications!

Eligibility University students, Graduate students, Postdoctoral fellows and international students from Universities in the Tokai region

Number of recruits 20

Method Online (Zoom) and offline (@Nagoya University)

Language English (Language support will be provided)

Fee Free

Application

▼ Please register from following website

<https://tongali.net/events/social-impact-ws2021/>

Application deadline 20th May (thu)

Lecturers

Kenta Hara

- General Manager, AfricaScan Inc.
- President and Representative Director, Sonic Arc Inc.
- Visiting researcher, Ritsumeikan University
- Director, AfricaQuest Ltd.

Sunyoung Lim

- Project Assistant Professor, Osaka Prefecture University
- Director, NPO SharingCulture
- President and Representative, Imusha
- PMP certified by PMI.

Jun Fukuyoshi

- President and CEO, Cancer Scan co., Ltd
- Part-time lecturer, Graduate School of Health Management, Keio University
- Special lecturer, Doctoral Program in Transdisciplinary Innovation, Osaka University
- Special Lecturer, Graduate School of Health Management, Keio University
- Adjunct Lecturer, Graduate School of Strategic Management, Chuo University

Supported by Exploration and Development of Global Entrepreneurship for NEXT generation (EDGE-NEXT) Program Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology

Organizer and contact

Academic Research & Industry-Academia-Government Collaboration, Nagoya University
Tongali project

TEL 052-747-6490

E-mail tongali@aip.nagoya-u.ac.jp

URL <https://tongali.net>

Tongali