

Social Impact Workshop

Social Impact Workshop

This workshop aims to learn theory and practice of social impacts and idea creation methods through actually focusing on to solve social issues in Indonesia. We will collaborate with AfricaScan Inc., which provides preventive medicine, diet applications, and medical education services in the Republic of Kenya, and IBEKA, an NGO that working for rural economic development in Indonesia. There will be both face to face (at Nagoya University) and online meetings, we will conduct online interview surveys to Indonesian community to explore ways to solve local problems. if the COVID situation allows, we will actually visit Indonesia to validate your idea in summer. We are waiting for your applications.

Eligibility University students, Graduate students, Postdoctoral fellows and international students from Universities in Tokai region

Number of recruits 15

Method online (ZOOM) and offline (@Nagoya University))

Language English

Kenta Hara

General Manager, AfricaScan Inc.

Lecturers

Sunyoung Lim

Director, NPO SharingCulture
President and Representative, Imusha

Application

▼ Participation is free of charge,
but please register from following website
<https://tongali.net/events/social-impact-ws2022/>

Application deadline 16th May (MON)

Session 1 21th May (sat) 9:00-16:00
@NagoyaUniversity
What is Social Impact? System Design Thinking

Session 2 4th June (sat) 9:00-13:00
@Online
What is value and job? Learning value chain

Session 3 18th June (sat) 9:00-13:00
@Online
What is Minimum Valuable Product (MVP)? Prototyping

Session 4 21th May (sat) 9:00-13:00
@Online
Financial planning in social business.
How to make a presentation

Session 5 16th July (sat) 9:00-13:00
@Nagoya University
Presentation

About AfricaScan Inc.

(<http://www.africanscan.com/>)

AfricaScan Inc. is a subsidiary of Cancer Scan Co., Ltd. (Headquarters: Shinagawa-ku, Tokyo, Representative Director: Jun Fukuyoshi), which is engaged in the preventive healthcare utilizing AI in Japan. Since 2014, AfricaScan have been working for preventive healthcare, diet applications, and medical education services in the Republic of Kenya, Africa.

About IBEKA

(<http://3.ibeka.or.id/wp/index.php/en/home/>)

IBEKA was founded in 1992 independent from Mandiri Foundation with the vision of promoting independent and equitable community empowerment innovations based on renewable energy and local resources. The Executive Director is Ms. Tri Mumpuni. Their main activity is developing off-grid hydro schemes with local communities, and they also involve in overall rural socio-economic development activities.

