IN PERSON Networking opportunity @Nagoya University

NIC 3F

Outline

The theme of the talk is 'Leveraging Intellectual Property as a Technology Startup'. Protecting intellectual property (IP) is essential for ensuring business success. When obtaining and enforcing IP rights, each company has its own challenges. During this presentation, we will focus on some of the unique challenges facing small and startup companies. With a primary focus on patents, we will discuss tips and strategies for navigating the IP system to maximize benefits while remaining within the bounds of the company's business plan.

About Guest speaker

Mr. Alexandros Zan Diamantis

Alexandros Zan Diamantis is a US patent attorney in the Nagoya and Washington, DC areas. By working closely with a wide range of companies, from large multinationals to startups, Diamantis has gained insight into the challenges facing each of these companies. He is primarily focused on facilitating the procurement and enforcement of IP rights across the Pacific Ocean.

Having obtained a master of electrical engineering degree from New York University, a master of physical chemistry from Emory University, and a juris doctorate from the University of New Hampshire (Franklin Pierce Law Center), Diamantis has had the opportunity to work on a wide variety of technologies.
